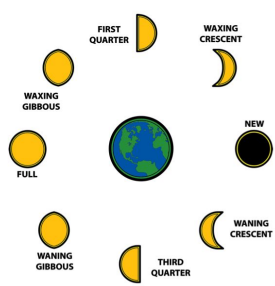
What Are We Learning About This Week?

Spelling: The students will spell words in Unit 33 (th). There will be a test on Friday, May 3rd.

Reading: The students will read the story, "Moses Goes to a Concert." This story is about a boy who attends a concert with his class. All the children in his class are hearing impaired. Throughout the story, sign language is taught.

Writing: The students will complete and present their storyboard projects. Project grades will be sent home in folders by the end of this week. The students did an outstanding job!

Math: The students will identify place value in numbers through 1000.


Science: The students will learn about the sun, the moon, stars, and what causes day and night.
